Week 3 | Play the Movie
Galatians 6:7 / Assorted

Introduction

God desires for each one of us to live life to its fullest, to live a life that's thriving. Jesus expressed this desire as his reason for coming to earth, when he said this in the 10th chapter of John's gospel... "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." This series takes a look at 9 bed-rock principles that go a long way toward making this life possible.

Questions for Study

1. Read Galatians 6:7. What is Paul communicating here?
2. What is your understanding of "sowing" and "reaping" and how it plays out in a person's life?
3. Read Hebrews 11:24-26. What did looking ahead allow Moses to do?
4. Have you heard the statement, "Begin with the end in mind"? What do you think this means? How is it important and helpful in experiencing God's full desire for our lives?
5. Read Daniel 1:1-8. What was the set-up for Daniel? How intentionally was he being indoctrinated? How did he respond?
6. Scan through the book of Daniel. What would you say was the ambition of Daniel's life? What was his goal?
7. Read Daniel 12:13. How would you describe the "end picture" for Daniel? How did God look at him (See also Daniel 9:23)?
8. In what areas of your life, if you played your current path forward, would you be excited about the outcome? Are there any areas that you think need a course correction to get where you feel God wants you to be?
